will be presented on the basis of the letters of recommendations submitted to Mr. Richard Passage and Mr. Bill Dickson, club advisors, by the student employees.

Surprise Move Yesterday Stuns Student Council

In a surprise move yesterday, the Student Council of the Associated Student Body of Green River Community College boycotted the regular meeting of the Council. Vice-president Danny Zivanich called the boycott so as to, "Bring to the attention of the entire student body several grievances against student government and its affairs."

The boycott succeeded in that only six of the 22 members showed up for the meeting. Since the quorum of 13 was not reached, the meeting was canceled.

Later, a meeting was held to explain the reasons for the boycott. A list of 11 grievances was presented and questions concerning the matter were answered.

The primary complaint seemed to be that the Executive Council has assumed powers not rightfully delegated by the Constitution. The general feeling of the Student Council members is that legislation should start in Student Council and then go to Executive Council. The recent refusal of a club constitution was cited as an example of the misuse of power. Student Council members are of the opinion that they should have the say over who should and should not be admitted to the Council.

Another complaint was the unconstitutional handling of the recent amendment election. The person in charge of the election violated the constitution by allowing people to register and vote on the same day. In one instance he allowed a person to vote without even registering. The constitution stipulates that all voters must be registered two weeks prior to the election to be eligible to vote.

The recent attitude of the Executive Council to fill ASB vacancies with appointments also came under fire, the trend in thought being that if an ASB officer is removed he should be replaced by an election and an election only.

Other areas mentioned include:

1. Question of attendance to conferences and meetings at other schools by Executive Council members only.

2. Mis-use of the Advisory Board.

3. Improper representation to the W.A.C.C.S.G. meeting of March 29-30.

4. President voting from the chair of the Vice-President in his absence from Student Council.

5. Question of difference between budgeted and non-budgeted clubs.

6. Question of clubs rights to conduct their own business.

The ultimate goal of the Student Council is for the Executive Council and the Administration to agree to place all the grievances before the Advisory Board and agree to accept the decisions of the Board.

Carol, Penny, Jo'lea, Lorraine Are Finalists

Four freshmen, Carol Cavanaugh, Lorraine Burkland, Penny Kleven, and Jo'lea Hopp are Green River Colleges' contribution to the 1967 Miss Auburn Pageant. They were selected from a field narrowed to 10 finalists to compete in the contest after the preliminary round last Saturday.

Dr. Jones To Address Conference

Dr. Emlyn Jones, head of the department of Social Science at Green River College, will be the keynote speaker at a four-day conference on the social studies April 19-22 at Madison, Wisc.

The conference, sponsored by the University of Wisconsin, will be for teachers for five states: Wisconsin, Minnesota, Michigan, Illinois, and Iowa. Approximately 450 teachers expected to attend.

Dr. Jones' address will be entitled, "Conceptual Strands from the Social Sciences: An Analytic Approach to the Teaching of the Social Studies."

In addition to delivering the keynote speech, Dr. Jones will participate in a series of panels in which the relative merits of various ways of organizing the social studies will be debated.

Carol Cavanaugh, a blue-eyed blonde, is a 19 year-old psychology major who enjoys "working with people and helping them." Her plans include completing her education at either Colorado University or Western Washington State after Green River.

Penny Kleven, another Kent graduate, is an 18 year-old brown-eyed brunette majoring in education. She, too, plans to complete her education at Western Washington State College.

Penny's reasons for entering the contest also centered around the experience she will gain. She said, "New experiences, and new people . . . both of these will help to make me a better all around person."

A third candidate is 19 year-old Jo'lea Hopp, a psychology major, who models professionally. Jo'lea is blonde and has green eyes.

Lorraine Burkland, 19, a 1966 graduate of Puyallup High School, is the fourth candidate from Green River. She is a hazel-eyed blonde who hopes to become an airline stewardess.

All four of these candidates were selected on the basis of poise, personality, appearance, speaking ability, and talent presentation. They will be competing in this year's Miss Auburn Pageant to be held May 27 at Olympic Junior High School.

They will compete for the crown now worn by the 1966 Miss Auburn, a former Green River College student, Sarah Eldridge.

Lorraine Burkland, Penny Klauin, Jo'Lea Hopp, and Carol Cavanaugh are candidates for the "Miss Auburn" contest.

Council Appoints Two Frosh Officers

Gary Gadwa has been appointed to the office of vice president of the freshman class while Mike Blodgett was selected to be class representative.

The appointments were felt to be a necessary move by the freshman class council. The former and elected vice president, Don Ferguson, was in attendance at two of the eight meetings held and was "not producing as desired" according to the class president, Jim Moran.

Moran stated that Ferguson was forewarned of the proposed impeachment and was "given a chance to resign"; however, the offer was "ignored" by Ferguson.

The representative slot now filled by Blodgett, was vacated by the call of "Uncle Sam".

Select Capable Leaders To Enter ASB Campaign

It's been a hectic year at Green River as far as student government is concerned. Some officers were dropped because they fell short of grade point requirements; others were impeached because they didn't do their jobs.

We're a new school and therefore we can't really say that this is to be expected. Last year was certainly not without problems, but the difficulties centered more around the fact that officers resigned for various reasons — usually understandable.

But let's hope future years will not be a repeat of this one. How can we do something about "the future?"

The answer is clear. Right now, today, scan the horizon of capable leadership on the campus, select the cream of the crop, and get them to run for office.

The trouble is that not enough students really get interested in student government. You can get them interested. Find the top people and impress on them the responsibility of service to the school.

Anyone who has any real pride in Green River, that intangible emotion we reptitiously refer to as school spirit, will feel a personal responsibility to join the talent hunt.

The special ability for supporting top candidates is a much-needed trait of society as a whole. Why not get the training now?

Maybe you should even run for office yourself.

Student Council Boycott Makes Co-operation Plea

Yesterday the Student Council boycotted the regular meeting of that same body. The primary reason for this boycott is that the Executive Council has assumed powers not delegated it by the Constitution.

The opinion of this editor is that if the Student Council is fully behind this measure then they have a legitimate cause to protest.

The students of this campus have been lulled into a sense of apathy by the student government. If the government expects the support of the students then the government must show some concern for the students.

This move by the Student Council is one that has been long awaited and is welcomed. Even if the goal of the protest falls short, the effort to bring to light several problems is to be commended as one taken by responsible leaders.

The student government has capable officers and it is certain that this problem will be solved very shortly. However, if the boycott should last longer and activities cease, then remember that this is a college and not a playground.

There is more at stake here than just the activities planned. There is the right of the students to be properly and justly governed. The Executive Council may look upon this move as childish and immature, but the right of organized protest is a right guaranteed to every ideology concerning popular governments.

If the Council fails to heed this sign by the Students Council, then all hope for co-operation between students and governments at GRCC is forever lost.

Withdrawal Date Set

The last day to withdraw from classes with any refund is April 19. If a student withdraws before this date, he will receive a 50 per cent refund and a "W" will be recorded on his grade record.

After this date, and up to two weeks before termination of the quarter, a student may withdraw with a "wp" or "wf", (passing or failing, respectively) on his record, and receive no refund. There will be no withdrawal from classes after two weeks before the quarter termination.

College Lass Named Queen

Miss Bonnie Moriarty, 18, a freshman at Green River, was chosen Miss Associated Improvement Clubs at the South King County group's annual Spring Festival on April 1.

Bonnie, a commercial art major, is a 1966 graduate of Federal Way High School. She was selected by the 25 participating candidates, and will serve as Miss Associated Improvement Clubs for one year until her successor is chosen next Spring. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Moriarty of Auburn and she lists singing, swimming, and art as her interests.

Class To Hold Meeting

Sophomore Class President Steve Hendricks has announced that there will be a sophomore class meeting today at noon in HS 4.

The agenda for the meeting includes the upcoming semi-formal, the class gift to the college, and graduation. The class is to vote on changes on the constitution also.

Ripples

What About Demonstrations?

Dear Editor:

A number of schools throughout the country are being exposed to frequent and varied demonstrations and protests.

Although there are presently no indications on campus of student interest in demonstrations, what would be the college's position regarding such situations, were they to develop?

H.A.R.

Dear H.A.R.,

Green River College has no official policy toward such activities as demonstrations and protests on campus. Were they to occur, they would be subject to local, state, and federal regulations concerning civil rights, assembly, etc.

Students are, however, advised that any organized activity, including demonstrations, should be submitted to the student council for prior approval.

D.P., Editor

Dear Editor:

Is Green River ever going to be a four year college?

H.A.R.

Dear H.A.R.,

A community college, such as Green River, is a two year institution separate from the four year college in requirements and operation.

However, Green River offers the freshman and sophomore years for the student who is transferring into the four year school.

What separates Green River from the four year college is its community service efforts, and the vocational area. For example, when the college theatre is complete it will be used by community and local theatrical groups.

Green River will not be changed into a four year school any more than Auburn High School would be changed into a four year college. In the Green River area a community college, such as ours, is needed, and would have to be replaced if Green River were turned into a four year institution. So what would the purpose be in extending its services to four years?

Huck Finn Week Begins Monday

Huckleberry Finn (alias, Jim Meyer) and Becky Thatcher (alias, Kathy Larrabee) prepare for Huck Finn Week.

Tax Plan Issues Forth

By D. Z.

The Washington Legislature and Governor Evans still find themselves unable to agree on a tax program. They rejected, after long hours of debate, the first proposal submitted by the Undertow. But with their rejection came a plea to submit an alternate plan.

The urgency in their note has given rise to the second proposal submitted by this column.

History Note

History has noted that throughout time, since 1776 anyway, the government of the United States has been credited with supplying aid to those countries which have dared to wage war on her and have been defeated.

The United States helped the rebellious South back on its feet, it gave to aid Germany after World War II. The United States will undoubtedly aid North Vietnam after that minor confrontation is over.

New Tax Plan

Armed with these facts, the Undertow issues forth a new and refreshing tax plan.

The state of Washington will simply secede from the Union and proclaim itself a free and independent nation. After a brief struggle against the "imperialistic" United States, Washington will merely surrender and then sit back and watch the Federal government pour millions of dollars into the economy so as to get a war-torn nation back on its feet.

The population need not fear reprisals from LBJ because they claim that they were the innocent victims of an insane government — one look at Olympia during the legislative meetings will confirm this alibi.

Even if by some strange fate Washington is given its independence it will benefit. The United States will pour billions of dollars into the economy to save a new nation from falling victim to the preying communists.

If Washington tires of running their own international affairs they can claim that the Olympic Peninsula is infiltrated with enemy forces and can receive the same benefits as Vietnam (South of course).

Added Bonus

Under either end Washington will receive an added bonus. A new nation needs a new constitution and Washington needs one as bad — if not worse — than most.

A new constitution will be drafted and the residents of the state will be better off because they can adopt the same constitution drafted even if they lose the revolution.

The Undertow feels that this plan is by far the best offered by anyone.

Not only has it solved the revenue problem but it has done away with an old and obsolete document somehow entitled the Constitution of the State of Washington. Any person interested in joining the uprising should notify the:

Openings Available For Class

The basic education program that the Green River Community College is sponsoring has openings for ten to fifteen people.

The program is designed to help those individuals with less than a high school education become more proficient in the basic educational skills.

NO FEES

There is no registration fee and the starting time for each person can be at his convenience. Students are taught on an individual basis, at a level determined by test score.

Mrs. Coleman, the instructor for the class, will meet with interested people from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Mondays through Fridays.

G.R. Fun, Activities Bring Campus Alive

The second annual Green River Raft Race is scheduled for April 22, 1967. This year's race will be the highlight of a week of fun and activities on the College's campus. The week, which begins April 16, and ends April 22, this coming Monday thru Friday, is entitled "Huck Finn Week."

Sunday, April 16, will kick off the week with the annual Frosh-Soph touch football game. The game will be played at Auburn's Trojan Field and will start at 2:00 p.m.

Monday will be grub day, and a prize will be awarded to the two people who best resemble Huck Finn and Becky Thatcher. At noon a "greased pig" contest will take place in the lower lounge area. A greased pig will be freed within the confines of the lounge. The entrant who succeeds in capturing the pig will receive a prize. This event will start at noon.

Tuesday the upper lounge area will be the scene for a frog jumping contest. Entered frogs will be placed inside a circle and the frog who jumps the farthest will be declared the winner with the sponsoring group receiving a prize.

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday have not been completely filled as of this time. Other clubs on campus are expected to sponsor various events which will tie in with the general theme of the week.

Friday will be the day of the Treasure Hunt. A chest will be hidden someplace on campus and maps will be issued to those interested. The finder of the chest will be entitled to keep everything in the chest — which will be opened at the dance.

G.R.'s Knonahi Covers Activities

The winter quarterly the Knonahi, will arrive April 24 and may be picked up at noon in HS-9. The cover will be navy blue with a cut of a skier. The opening section will be about skiing and the school campus under snow.

The winter quarterly will chiefly cover classroom activities, student activities, dances held in the lower lounge, the semi-formal which was held at the Edgewater Inn, and informal shots of the campus and students.

The spring quarterly, which will be about 48 pages, will be mailed to the students. Plans are being made for a pale pink transparent cover.

It will cover the graduation of the sophomores with individual pictures of the sophomores in their caps and gowns and the nurses in their uniforms.

The quarterly will also cover the artist-lecture series speakers Marta Becket, Dr. Robert Meade, Ramona Solberg who will talk on the arts of South East Asia, Ed Keating, editor of Ramparts magazine, who will talk on Vietnam, and Dr. Robert Scalapino, who has been an adviser to President Johnson, will talk on the U.S. foreign policy in Southeast Asia in the library.

Spring sports will also be covered.

Students can still sign up for the spring quarterly at Mr. Waldron's room or office.

Saturday is the day of the Race. The event is scheduled to begin at 12 noon and will start at Soos Creek, ending at the Green River Golf Courses Park. That night a dance will be held on campus and all prizes will be awarded during intermission. The dance will begin at 9:30 p.m. and will run until 12:30 a.m. Prizes will be awarded at 11:00 p.m.

Invitations have been extended to all schools in the area who might wish to enter the race. These schools will abide by the same rules as all Green River entrants must.

All money collected during the week will go toward the dance which will be free to GRCC students.

The rules of the raft race are:

1. All rafts must be made completely by the entered crew;

a. All rafts must not exceed 10 ft. by 12 ft.

b. All rafts must have a wood frame and floor.

c. All rafts must have a metal ring on the front that is at least five inches in diameter.

b. Each crew member is to pay a $1.00 entry fee. This fee is to be paid at the ASB office when crews are entered, and if any member decides not to race he forfeits his $1.00 and any new member, who shall take his place, shall pay the required fee.

c. Entries must be made during the week of April 16-21.

d. Each member is required to wear a Coast Guard approved life preserver or ski belt.

e. Crews must be students of GRCC, except those schools that have been invited.

3. Course and winner;

Class Holds Shop

Green River College's Knonahi staff, in cooperation with the American Yearbook, publishers of the college quarterly, hosted a yearbook workshop Saturday, April 8, on the G.R. campus.

Advisers and key 1968 staff members from 40 to 45 high schools in the Puget Sound area from Mount Vernon to Olympia took part in the day's activities which included seminars on copy writing, staff organization, photography, and other yearbook production elements such as layout design.

Gary Ehler, Sandee Rogers Selected For Distributive Education Offices

Gary Ehler, a Green River freshman from Enumclaw, and Sandee Rogers, a Green River freshman from Kent, were elected officers in the state Mid-Management division of the Distributive Education Clubs of America at the eighth annual meeting of DECA in Yakima last week.

Mr. Ehler was named vice-president of the organization, succeeding another Green River student, Paul Whitfield, who served during the 1966-67 year. Miss Rogers was named recording secretary at the three-day meeting conducted April 2-4.

In the various contests at the conference, Paul Whitfield topped the Green River entrants by finishing second in impromptu speaking.

The college was represented by 12 students and coordinators Richard Passage and Joe Warner.

Newly elected state DECA officers are Gary Ehler, vice-president, and Sandee Rogers, secretary.

College Sponsors Seminar

Green River Community College is co-sponsoring a seminar covering the Keogh Bill, a law passed by Congress enabling self-employed persons to establish a tax sheltered retirement program for themselves and their employees.

In its original form the law provides federal income tax deduction of 50 per cent of the amount contributed, but it defectively excluded small businesses in which capital was a major factor in producing business income.

Changes passed by Congress in 1966 have liberalized the law to allow 100 per cent deduction of the contribution and allowed all unincorporated businesses to participate on equal terms beginning January, 1968.

The meeting will be held at a no-host luncheon, Auburn Elks Club, noon, April 23, 1967. Robert E. Tavis, vice president of Hinton Jones and Company, will lead the discussion.

Plans Started for Semi-Formal "Flower Drum Song" To Be in April

The Tacoma Mall will be the setting for Green River College's spring semi-formal, "Flower Drum Song," to be held April 29.

Dancing will be from 9 to 12 p.m. with music provided by a Tacoma group, The Art Doll Combo.

Miss Teri O'Grady, co-chairman for the dance, said, "The Mall will provide a good background for the dance. The fountains provide an excellent atmosphere for the oriental theme we've chosen."

Committee chairmen include Cindy Highland, co-chairman in charge of programs; Casey Shipwreck, Clean-up; Jim Moran, Publicity and Sandy Craig, decorations.

Refreshments will be served at Le Petit Cafe' on the Mall. Tickets are $4.00 per couple and do not include refreshments.

New Board of Trustees Discussed

Legislators Agree to Area Representation on Board

Representatives from Auburn, Kent, Renton, Maple Valley and Renton met with State Representatives Gary Grant, Avery Garrett, and Norwood Cunningham at Green River College Wednesday evening to discuss setting up a new Board of Trustees.

Green River currently is under the direction of the Auburn School Board, but House Bill 548 and engrossed substitute House Bill 548 recently passed by the legislature and signed by Gov. Evans, provides for 21 community college districts, each with its own Board of Trustees.

Nominating Committee

The three representatives at the Auburn meeting are the three legislators who live in the newly created district and will therefore be responsible for nominating Trustees for the Green River Board. Their nominations must be submitted to the governor by May 18.

Green River College administrators - Pres. Melvin Lindbloom, Dean of Students Earl Norman, Dean of Instruction Ray Needham, and Paul Webb, who will be the business manager of the college next year, met with Garrent, Grant, and Cunningham as well as school board representatives from Auburn, Kent, Renton, Tahoma (Maple Valley) and Enumclaw.

Geographic Representation

The group agreed that each geographical area should be represented by one Trustee on the Board. The legislators indicated that they would appreciate the School Board members from the respective districts serving as a "screening committee" on recommendations. School Boards' members plan to submit names to the legislators by May 2. The legislators, however, will not necessarily be bound to accept all the recommendations.

Dr. Lindbloom Thursday morning told the Green River Current that he was extremely happy with the results of the meeting. "I am very pleased with the response of area school boards and the state representatives to the idea of area representation. I am gratified with the degree of interest that they have shown in the development of Green River Community College."

Former Student Directs Play

A former Green River College student, Bill Martinson, is the director of a one-act play on narcotics addition, "Dope," being produced at Everett Junior College.

As a Green River College freshman, Martinson last year directed a college one-act play. His drama career also includes work in a Helena, Montana summer stock company in 1965, and roles in Everett Junior College productions of "A Thurbur Carnival" and "110 in the Shade." He will play a principal role in the upcoming EJC production of Thornton Wilder's "Our Town."

Martinson, a 20-year-old sophomore speech and drama education major, is a graduate of Federal Way High School.

Jim Meyer, Bob Campbell, John Gaither and Kathy Larrabee rehearse for coming production of "Solid Gold Cadillac."

Current Receives First Class Rating

For the fifth straight "semester" the Green River Current has been rated First Class by the Associated Collegiate Press rating service.

College papers who subscribe to the ACP feature service are rated twice a year. The Current received a first class rating twice last year and twice the year before which was the first year the paper was published.

Fall quarter papers published this year, with Garry Russo as editor, received a total of 2455 points out of a possible 4100. An All-American rating goes to papers with 3700 points and above. A total of 3100 points are needed for First Class.

The top rating came in coverage as the paper was awarded 745 points of a possible 800. Other areas of rating included news content (news and features, editorials, editorial features, and sports); and physical content (make-up, headlines, typography, and photography).

'Solid Gold Cadillac' Slated for May 18-20

Rehearsals for "Solid Gold Cadillac" are full swing as cast members work toward the new production dates of May 18-19-20.

The play was changed from the original dates because of an activities conflict on May 12, one of the dates previously announced for the production.

Playing the lead role of Mrs. Laura Partridge, a spry little lady who upsets the business world, will be Kathy Larrabee, a freshman from Federal Way. Featured as the "villians" who oppose her efforts are the "four ugly corporation directors," Doyle Burke, Jim Meyer, John Gaither, and Bob Campbell. Danny Zivanich, a sophomore from Seattle, will portray Ed McKeever, the former company president who joins Mrs. Partridge in her fight against the General Products Company.

Others in the cast include Pat Holden as Mark Jenkins, an office boy; Kathy Pekie as Amelia Shotcraven, Mrs. Partridge's secretary; Sandra Lundberg and Margaret Aldrich as models; Marilee Kronkright, a kookie secretary to Mr. McKeever, and Larry Fuller, Cheryl Missler, John Conrad, and Jo'lea Hopp as reporters.

Heading the production crews for the play is Mary Thomas. Ed Eaton is the director.

The cast rehearses daily from 3 to 5 p.m. in HS-12.

The play will be presented in an improvised theatre-in-the-round in the library. Special lights will be brought in as well as risers for the audience. The play will be presented on two stages, one of them slightly raised, with some unusual scene changes between the two levels.

Seney Involved in Politics

'Young Citizens For Washington' Organize to Draft Constitution

MIKE SENEY

Mike Seney, former Green River A.S.B. president, is now an active participant in off-campus politics. Mike, in conjunction with Chuck Taylor, Seattle University, and Dick Sempke, of the University of Washington, has established an organization known as "Young Citizens for Washington."

This group is basically made up of college students, but hopefully it will eventually encompass interested high school students and young non-college citizens of this state. The purpose of this state-wide organization is to call a constitutional convention to draft a new state constitution which will be submitted to the people for their approval.

To call such a convention, the "Young Citizens for Washington" plan on placing an initiative measure before the people to authorize such a convention.

"By doing this," explains Mike, "we will be able to bypass the state legislature, which seems to be actively opposed to any constitutional convention." "The reason for this," he goes on, "is because they (the legislature) realize that a new state constitution would quite probably reduce the number of seats in the legislature. And no one, including our worthy legislators, wishes to put himself out of a job."

Due to the fact that this is a relatively new organization, it is now in its recruiting state and any person who would be willing to work for a cause which might lower the voting age to eighteen (or maybe even the drinking age to eighteen) should contact Mike Seney or Cheryl Missler with their summer address and the school they plan on attending next year.

Lost and Found

Vincent Collects Losses

Have you lost a book, or perhaps an umbrella or wallet? If so, you might check the Lost and Found which is located in the Humanities Building in the A.S.B. office.

Mrs. Winnie Vincent, co-ordinator of student activities, is in charge of the Lost and Found. She stated, "The students are very good in turning in valuables. There have been large amounts of money, rings, wallets, jackets and overcoats, books, and umbrellas turned in each quarter. When any of the students lose anything on campus, the first place he should look is the Lost and Found."

"One would be surprised at the variety of objects lost. The quickest way to find something lost is through checking with the A.S.B. office."

MUN Class Prepares For Trip to Regional Conference

Green River's M.U.N. class is presently studying notes, memorizing rules, and catching up on facts before they leave for their Model United Nations Delegation April 27, 28, and 29, in Portland, Oregon.

Five of the students, Larry Knipshield, Ellen Stendell, Mary Heindel, Ken Malendore, and Joan Fujimura attended a regional conference Saturday, March 18, at Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma.

Mr. Katungi and Mr. David Shilling, sponsors of the Portland conference, were there to discuss procedures, answer any questions the committees had, and note the progress made by the attending schools.

About twenty schools participated.

Mr. Orval Hanson, Riley Ziegler, John Jones, Larry Knipshield, chairman, Ken Malendore, Joan Fujimura, Ellen Stendall, and Mary Heindel will travel to Portland to represent Green River.

Chemistry Club Campus Newest Organization

The constitution of the newly formed Green River Chemistry Club was approved by the student council this week, and the newly elected officers are preparing to assume the duties of organizing this, the college's newest, on-campus organization.

At their first meeting April 6, the Chemistry Club elected Jack Reynolds, a 21-year-old chemistry major, president. Jack, a 1965 graduate of Edison Technical School, and Green River sophomore who plans to transfer to Seattle U next year, receives the first Chemistry Club gavel of authority.

Richard Kost, a 25-year-old pharmacy major and 1960 high school graduate has been elected vice-president. Gale Lee, Chemistry Club's first secretary-treasurer, is a 20-year-old Auburn High School graduate.

The Chemistry Club plans to organize field trips to such places as the Boeing Space Center. All persons with an interest in Chemistry are urged to join the club. The meetings are held on the first and third Thursdays of each month with Dr. Edward Fohn, head of the science department, and Mr. Marcus Manson as advisers.

Spring Quarter Enrollment Down Slightly

Enrollment figures for spring quarter at Green River College have dropped to 1,291, a slight drop from winter quarter but still higher than any one of the three quarters last year.

Dean of Students Earl Norman, who announced the figures Thursday morning, said that 1,440 students attended day classes fall quarter and 1,340 attended winter quarter. Last year's high was 1,100 in the winter. The school opened with 763 daytime students, went up to 1,100 when campus facilities were expanded winter quarter, and then dropped to 945 for the spring quarter.

The projected enrollment for next fall's day program is 1,600 students. Expected to return are 500 sophomores and 1,100 new students which will include freshmen and transfer students. So far, applications have been received from approximately 900 students.

Veterans Sponsor 'Bash'

"Interstate Five" will be the group on hand for the Veterans Club bash May 13 from 9:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. in the Lower Lounge on campus. Tickets will be $1.25 per person.

They have played the U of W and the Party Club dance in Tacoma and have their own Fan Club in Kent. They begin recording in May and will be on the Go-Go then.

KASY radio station is the sponsor of this local group and are helping Len Zarelli, the group leader, and his boys.

Educational Assistance Available to Veterans

by Jim Smith

This column shall be directed toward veterans and future veterans on the GRCC campus. It is my aim to keep you informed as to all veteran affairs; both the VA Regional Office in Seattle and this campus will be the sources of items. Any questions and any information you might have pertaining to veterans affairs in general will be appreciated. Questions and news items should be placed in Mr. Eaton's box in the office.

On March 3, 1966, the President approved a law passed by Congress to provide educational assistance for veterans who served on active duty with the Armed Forces after January 31, 1955.

The Veterans' Readjustment Benefits Act of 1966 can help servicemen obtain education or training for a chosen career or better employment opportunities in civilian life. Those eligible under this law are veterans who have served continuously on active duty for a period of at least 181 days, any part of which was after January 31, 1955, and who were discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable. This also applies to any veteran who served less than 181 days if he was discharged or released because of a service-connected disability and to a person who is in service if he has served on active duty for at least two years.

He may pursue a course at a college, vocational, business, high school or correspondence school. The course must be approved. Under certain circumstances a college course pursued in a foreign country may be approved.

The limit is 36 months. This would cover four school years of nine months each for a veteran who served on active duty for at least three years after January 31, 1955.

Any vets who served less than three years may receive one full month of educational assistance allowance for each month or part of a month he served on active duty on or after February 1, 1955.

If a veteran has previously received any VA educational benefits based on his own service or as a war orphan, the 36 months period of eligibility for educational assistance under the Veterans Readjustment Benefit Act of 1966 may be reduced.

VA may not provide training after eight years from date of the last discharge or release from active duty if the discharge is on or after June 1, 1966. The time limit for a veteran whose service ended before June 1, 1966 is May 31, 1974.

The rate of pay may be increased if the student has a wife, child or dependent parent.

College Track Season Opens at Yakima Shoreline Dominates Ten-Team Invitational

Manager, Statistician Receive Recognition

By Danny Zivanich

To the students who followed the 'Gator sports program names like Dale Opp, Greg Brovold, Vern Hoffer, and Dan Edwards are familiar. Each of the above are athletes who were outstanding in their fields. But there are two individuals who are also outstanding and who have not received any recognition.

The first is Charles Gailey. Charlie was the manager for the GRCC dribblers. He is a graduate of Raymond High School and has served Coach Aubert for five years.

The duties of a manager are never defined because they are infinite.

A manager is everything from towel boy to a doctor, he must keep the shot chart and make sure everyone has a uniform to wear; he must fulfill the every order of the coach, and he must be the target for the vengeance of the players. He must be an all-around handy man.

One Workhorse

Charlie is one of these workhorses, and he does his job with pride and a sense of responsibility.

So we salute Charlie and every manager for a job well done.

The second individual is Larry Knipschild, Larry was the statistician for the Current Sports. Larry is a '66 grad of Renton High School (for those who didn't know).

Dull Duty

Larry went to every game. He was faced with the dull duty of keeping a running score of the game, then he would have to get a list of all those who played and their performance for the night. This completely eliminates any chance of enjoying the game. His assistance proved to be priceless.

Larry received nothing for his efforts, no letterman's jacket, no praise, no publicity, and no acknowledgement. What Larry did receive was a personal sense of satisfaction.

Congratulations

Congratulations for a job well done and thanks.

So, the next time sports come up, remember that there is always someone behind the star who is helping in every way that he can.

Conference Splits

A recent vote of the Presidents Council of the Washington Association of Community Colleges changes the three conference basketball leagues into two conferences. Under the old division the state was divided into three divisions, the East, West, and North.

The new split provides for two divisions, the East-West and the Western. The Western Division is the larger with ten teams compared to the East-West's eight teams. Green River is in the Western Division; teams going over to the East include Skagit Valley, Everett, and Shoreline.

Raceway Offer Turned Down

Green River Drag fans received a reprieve recently when the owners of Pacific Raceways turned down an offer by the Auburn City Council to purchase the strip for a municipal airport.

The track is located outside of Kent and is near the college. It has been the scene of local drag racing and is just now beginning to bring in profits.

The city offered the owners $550,000 which was turned down by the principal stockholders, Ren Jones and Dan Fiorito. The owners had reportedly asked a sum of $800,000 for the strip.

Auburn is not yet certain whether they will up their offer and the owners have said that they are still open to offers.

ROGER SLOAN

Mr. Sam Martin To Coach Track

Green River's track team may be young but it boasts the services of a fine coach in Sam Martin. Mr. Martin is currently teaching at Auburn High School where he doubles as the assistant football and wrestling coach.

Mr. Martin attended college at Western Washington State College where he was a four-year letterman in track. In his four years at WWSC he never failed to place in NAIA competition.

Besides coaching at Auburn, Martin has coached at Bellingham, Moses Lake, and Big Bend Community College.

Green River opened its 1967 track season April 8 at the Yakima Fruit Bowl with two points. Shoreline showed tremendous strength and depth in winning with 80½ points, Highline was their closest competitor with 43 points. Tomorrow the Gators travel to Clark to pair off against Lower Columbia, Yakima, and Clark.

Of those teams, Yakima fared the best with 38½ points. The Gators will go into the match without their only pointmaker - Roger Sloan, who placed in the high jump with 6-2 and has been forced to quit due to outside obligations.

Pacing the Samurai victory was Boyd Gittens, who won the high hurdles in 15.1 seconds and the intermediate hurdles in :38.7. Shoreline won seven of the 18 events.

Team results - Shoreline 80½, Highline 43, Yakima 38½, Everett 39, Spokane 36½, Columbia Basin 11½, Grays Harbor 10, Wenatchee 8, Green River 2, Centralia 1.

Soph-Frosh Schedule Annual Game

The class of '67 will lay its unbeaten string on the line Sunday, April 16, as they tackle the Freshman class in the annual flag-football game. This year's game is again being played at Auburn's Troy Field and kick-off time is slated for 2:00 p.m.

The Sophs are again coached by Bob Petet who has led the class of 67ers to three consecutive victories, but Frosh coach John Coffey promises that this game will be full of surprises and that the string will end at three.

Petet's main hopes lie in quarterback Roger Sloan, end Norm Proctor, backs Bob Kober and Danny Zivanich, and guards Riley Ziegler and Tim Burke. Defensively the Sophs are inexperienced at the deep safety positions and in the linebackers. The Sophs are strong offensively and weak defensively.

The freshmen are relying on Jim Ryker and John Coffey for a powerful running game. The freshmen boast a big line and will be a threat throughout the game. They are best on defense and weakest on offense.

The game promises to be one of a stiff defense against a powerful offense and the Sophs have their work cut out for them if they wish to retire undefeated.
