"All My Sons" Play Set Next Weekend

The first of two Green River Community College plays, "All My Sons" will be presented next weekend, Feb. 23-24 in the Performing Arts Building at 8 p.m. The week following, Feb. 29 to March 2, the college will sponsor a production of John Synge's "Playboy of the Western World."

Arthur Miller's "All My Sons," directed by Ron Swift of Auburn High School, is an evening school production which hopefully will be the beginning of a series of community theatre plays rehearsed during the evening at the college. "We would like to involve as many adults in the community as well as college students as the program develops," said Harold W. Taylor, director of continuing education at the college, who first suggested the idea of a play sponsored jointly by the college and the community.

Featured in the cast of "All My Sons" are Tim Hanson of Buckley; Kermit and George "Bub" Swift of Enumclaw; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brandhagen of Kent; and Mrs. Irene Hough, Mrs. Kathy Bickford, Paul Clark, Mrs. Pauless Van Winkle; and Dave Feden, all of Auburn.

Currently in rehearsal during the afternoons is "Playboy of the Western World," an Irish farce written around the turn of the century. Cast members include Chris Walker Buzz Cole, and Dave Feden, all of Auburn; Deborah Weeks and Laurie Bouldron, both of Kent; Tim Hanson, Buckley; Jim Grieger, Renton; Bruce Carpenter, Puyallup; Sharon Berg, Everett; and Mary Jeanne Babinski, Bellevue.

The colorful Irish drama will be staged at 2 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 29, and Friday, March 1; and at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, March 1-2.

Jim Grieger proves to be a hit with the girls in the college production of "Playboy of the Western World" to be presented Feb. 29-March 2 in the Performing Arts Building. The girls are, from left, Mary Jeanne Babinski, Meg Behrens, Laurie Bouldron, and Sharon Berg.

Dr. Misch Presents Slide Show On Northern Cascades Tuesday

"Twenty Years of Exploration in the Northern Cascades" will be shown to Green River College students Tuesday, Feb. 20 in a colored slide presentation by Dr. Peter Misch, a well-known professor of geology at the University of Washington.

The presentation will begin at 8:00 p.m. in the Performing Arts Building.

In addition to being the foremost authority on the geology of the Northern Cascades, Dr. Misch is also (by necessity) an expert climber and has made several first ascents in the region. He is an avid skier and at every opportunity during the winter months he is shooshing down Crystal Mountain or one of the passes.

He is a member of the Permanent Council of the Geol. Vereinigung, a fellow in the Geological Society of America, Geological Society of London, American Mineralogical Society, and holds membership in the American Association of Petroleum Geologists, Geological Society of France, Geophysical Union Geochemical Society, Northwest Scientific Association, and the Geological Society of Tulsa. Dr. Misch lists more than 40 publications dealing with the structure, stratigraphy, and metamorphic and granitic petrology of areas in the Pyrenees, Himalayas, Southwest China, Northeastern Great Basin, Ouachita Mountains, and the Northern Cascades of Washington.

European Tour Meeting Slated

The European Jet Tour, sponsored by Green River, will be high-lighted through colored slides of points to be visited by the Tour Director Rex W. Waldron in the Performing Arts Theater Wednesday at 8 p.m.

The tour leaves June 19 and returns on July 9.

Slides will be shown of Amsterdam, Milan, Venice, Florence, Rome, Paris, London, Stratford-on-Avon, and Castles of Ireland. A discussion on passports, visas, insurance, shots and other information necessary for the tour will be held at that time. Anyone interested may attend the showing.

Rooter Bus Rules Set

The Board of Control at GRCC has announced that the code of conduct for the rooter bus tomorrow to Lower Columbia College and all other rooter buses will be as follows:

The rooter bus is an extension of the college campus; therefore, the same code of conduct applies both places.

Specifically:

1. Acceptable behavior is expected. (Chaperones have the final word on acceptability.)

Offenders must appear before the Board of Control and are subject to sanctions ranging from social probation to dismissal from school.

2. Since Washington State Law prohibits the use of alcoholic beverages in unlicensed public places, and also prohibits being in a state of intoxication in such places, the consuming or possessing of intoxicants is not permitted.

Violators of the "alcoholic beverages" rule will be turned over to the nearest legal or civil authorities. In addition, violators must appear before the Board of Control subject to the same sanctions as violators of Rule 1.

The announcement by the Board of Control was made because of the questions raised by students and rooter bus riders concerning the past rooter busses. These rules will govern all rooter busses in the future.

Board Members, Dr. Lindbloom To Attend National Meeting

Green River Community College trustees, William Kennelly and Dr. William Shaw of Kent and Robert Olson of Enumclaw, along with Dr. Melvin Lindbloom, president of the college, will take part in the 48th annual convention of the American Association of Junior Colleges Feb. 26 to Mar. 1 in Boston, Mass.

They will be among some 1,500 college administrators and faculty from throughout the country attending the meeting at the Sheraton-Boston Hotel.

The Association, which represents a majority of the country's two-year colleges, will consider issues and problems in higher education related to community college development. Among topics to be considered are those dealing with faculty development, facilities planning, federal aid to education, new curriculums, and response of the junior college to new social needs.

John Macy, chairman of the U.S. Civil Service Commission, will be among the major speakers. The convention will close with the annual banquet on Thursday, Feb. 29.

Production Nearing Final Rehearsals

Jim Greiger will portray Christy, a poet at heart, struggling to break away from the confining existence of a dirt farmer dominated and abused by a tyrannical father in "The Playboy of the Western World," John Millington Synge's outrageous comedy, which will be presented to the Green River students on February 29, March 1, and March 2 in the GRCC Theater.

Michael Flaherty, portrayed by Tim Hanson, owns a small pub in the west county of Ireland, which his daughter Pegeen, (Sharon Berg), tends for him. Pegeen is engaged – but not enthusiastically – to Sean Keogh (Chris Walker), a local farmer who is fat, wealthy, and abjectly timid. Pegeen, Sean, Mike, and two of Mike's cronies, Philly (Dave Feden) and Jimmy (Buzz Cole), are gathered in the pub one evening when a stranger happens by. The stranger is young Christy Mahon, running from a capitol crime, having halved his father's skull some days back.

These strange western Irishmen construe Christy's deed not as a heinous crime but as an act of courage and boldness. Christy gains their respect – and trust, apparently, as they leave him to keep Pegeen company while they all go off to a funeral (to get well embalmed).

In the next day or so Christy continues to receive the adulation of the local folk – and to gain the affection of Pegeen. He returns her feeling vigorously and for the first time in his life feels that he has hold of something fine and rare.

Suddenly into the scene strides Old Man Mahon (Carl Chevars) – Christy's father – head bandaged and aching, but very much alive, and raging to get his hands on Christy.

The villagers are shocked and outraged, feeling that they have been made fools of in their making a hero of Christy.

Pegeen is crushed with shame and disappointment. She joins the others in their rejection of Christy.

The play ends with Christy and his father joining together in their scorn of these foolish and fickle folk and stalking away from the pub, the wiser for their encounter with human folly.

Other characters include: Widow Quinn (Mary Jeanne Babinski), Sara (Meg Behrens), Susan (Laurie Bouldron), Honor (Deborah Weeks), and Nelly (Diane Shaffstall).

Homecoming Queen Commended For Outstanding Poise

Green River's first Homecoming celebration has now passed into the annals of college history. It was originally designed to be a week filled with activities, but it didn't turn out that way, and the unfortunate result was discontent among the students about the Homecoming week proceedings.

Homecoming, however, was not a wasted effort. It brought to light much proof of student disorganization and lack of communication. It is said that the best teacher is experience, and if this is the case, then the students at Green River have been taught by the best and have learned from the mistakes made at this first attempt for a homecoming celebration what not to do in the future.

The good things that can be said about homecoming week are that:

1. The basketball team won as expected.
2. Ambassador Ratan K. Nehru spoke as scheduled.

3. The students at least had one activity, the spur-of-the-moment skate-board race, to add a spark to the otherwise activity-less week.

4. The idea of having a homecoming celebration was excellent.

5. It was a good opportunity to bring a name band on campus for the February sock-hop.

But most important of all was the fact that the beautiful girl who was selected Homecoming Queen, and her lovely court, withstood the blurt of the students' discontent over election procedures and represented the college well.

Chris, in her attempt to represent the college, kept her poise and personality and radiated her pride in being selected as Homecoming Queen, which made the whole affair seem at least worthwhile. She should be commended on her ability to take the blurt of the affair and conduct herself so well.

Thievery Epidemic Needs Cure

It seems that a strange epidemic has been spreading all over campus and it seems that it is about time the person or persons who are carrying the germs of this costly epidemic had better find a cure before the whole student body is contaminated.

The Daily Bulletin each day contains pleas of students who have had personal belongings stolen, from wallets, to car keys, to scarfs. In the last couple of months there has been a rash of thefts in which articles such as stereo tape decks, tackometers, and even an IBM office machine have been stolen.

The administration, in an effort to remedy the situation, has ordered all rooms that are not in use for classes to be locked at all times. This is a great strain on the students who have used the rooms for discussions and studying which they are unable to do in the crowded conditions in the library or the lounges. And it really isn't fair to these students to have to leave simply because some person or persons have decided to destroy all trust and faith of the administration in the student body by their infectious disease which is known as stealing.

The students are being hurt, and so are the members of the administration for having to resort to these drastic measures. If anyone sees anyone taking something that does not belong to him, it is his duty to either stop this person or go to someone who can. One might think it is "squealing" to report to the administration any strange goings on; but when it gets to the point that students cannot trust one another, faculty members cannot trust students, and the administration must resort to drastic measures to try to ward off the spreading of the stealing on campus, then it is the duty of every person to aid in restoring a healthful atmosphere on campus.

Council Rep Offers Service

In recent weeks there have been numerous mutterings in the Student Lounge about the Homecoming Queen elections and the Rooters Buses. However, only vague whispers of these complaints have reached the ears of Student Council, the only student organization on campus that can really do anything about these gripes. Why hasn't Council heard the complaints? Why haven't the students proposed reforms?

The entire problem seems to lie in the fact that there is a general lack of communication between the students and the Council. All Council meetings are open to the students. What, then, causes this break in communication? What can be done about it? It is clear that SOMETHING must be done.

As a member of Student Council (Pep Club Representative), I would like to propose a start. I will make myself available from 12:15-12:50 on Mondays, 1:15-1:50 on Tuesdays, 4:00-4:30 on Wednesdays and 1:15-1:50 on Thursdays in the lower lounge. If ANYONE has ANYTHING to say, I will be more than happy to listen and to present it before Council. Or, if you prefer, you may leave suggestions or gripes in the Pep Club mailbox in the lower lounge. They may be signed or unsigned, as you wish.

Student Council is there to represent YOU. Do you have something to say?

Students Should See That Clark Incident Never Happens at Green River

The students who rode the rooter Clark cheer staff made an attempt (which busses to the Green River-Clark basketball was a half-hearted one, at least) to move game were rightfully disturbed when they the Clark students out of the Green River arrived to find much of their "reserved" section.

Clark College evidently did attempt to taught well the game of basketball. Unfortunately, it seems that there are a number of Clark fans who haven't yet been taught clearly and distinctly roped off and marked to read.

Admittedly, the fans of both schools demonstrated something less than exemplary behavior before, during, and after the game. But the completely mannerless and ignored the signs, and quickly occupied a childlike actions of Clark fans who knowing-sizeable portion of the "reserved" Green River section.

However, Clark rooters, either illiterate or mannerless, disregarded the ropes, game. But the completely mannerless and ignored the signs, and quickly occupied a childlike actions of Clark fans who knowing-sizeable portion of the "reserved" Green River section.

Even when the announcer requested that the Clark fans leave the Green River ammdend the inconvenience caused by the section so that Green River rooters could immaturity of some Clark fans — except to take the seats reserved for them, the Clark make sure that the same thing never fans remained. And only one member of the happens here.

Homecoming Week Could Have Been 'Big Deal'

Dear Editor:

Homecoming Part III

Green River just had its first Homecoming. It seems everyone has nothing to say about it but "Big Deal."

Well, that's just what it could have been if a few more of the nearly 1500 students would have gotten off their butt-on tufted lounge chairs and given the so called "group" (which consisted of about three students) a few ideas and maybe even offered a few minutes of their precious time to help organize and run an eventful and memorable homecoming.

But no, the great society of GRCC would rather sit in the lounge and talk about all the things they didn't like about the way it was being run. They didn't like the voting for royalty because they were only given 3 days to vote, they had to register to vote to help make ballot counting easier, then there was the throwing out of ballots because a couple of students (student leaders, no less) stuffed the ballot box with 15 or 20 ballots each.

Oh, yes, woman sufferage — well, you might say the girls spoiled it for themselves when a number of them decided they wanted a Queen like Jas Linford or every girl's hero Marion Bozman. After all, they're nice guys, but Homecoming Queen?

Dear Editor,

I am writing in reply to the February 9 letter from the eight gentlemen who support the policies of the First Lady of Alabama, George C. Wallace. It was a brilliantly worded letter, but made absolutely no sense.

First of all, they seem to think you must be a "liberal" or a "pseudo-intellectual" to call Wallace a racist. That is a complete insult to my intelligence. Either they don't know what a racist is, or they're too busy "standing up for America" to open their eyes and ears.

Who was it who defied a federal court order and attempted to bar the door to Negroes at the University of Alabama, in 1963? George C. Wallace. Who closed the schools scheduled for integration? George C. Wallace. And who, after finally opening the schools, used state troopers to prevent

To The Editor:

Mr. Ferguson's points that there should be more opportunity for students to question speakers and that students should be invited to receptions for speakers are well taken.

In the future, we will try to provide more time following speeches and we will have receptions to which students are invited.

Sincerely,
Orval Hansen, Chairman
Artist-Lecture Series

Pre-college Test Date Has Been Changed

The date for the pre-college test has been changed to February 17. The original date set for the administration of the test was February 10.

The test will be given at 8 a.m. in the student cafeteria in the Holman Library Building. All students who plan to take the test much register in the counseling center and pay the $7.00 fee before February 17.

No School Thursday, No Paper on Friday

Since there will be no school Thursday because of Washington's Birthday, no paper will be published on Friday, Editor De Ette Pravitz announced today.

The paper normally is published every Friday, but since Thursday is the key day to publication, an edition next week will not be issued.

That's taking it too far.

The selection of the Queen was left up to the present varsity athletes who were even ridiculed for their selection.

Homecoming week, supposedly a week to be filled with activities, didn't turn out that way only because, after a plea in student council for club planned activities, the students came through again and did nothing.

In a final try for homecoming activities, the "group" sponsored a grub day, a skate board race, and a one act play. Even the Homecoming Dance, which was not a semiformal (at the students' request), which was publicized widely, turned out to be all but a grand success thanks to our apathetic students and faculty.

If GRCC plans to have Homecoming as an annual event, there are going to have to be a lot of changes in the attitudes of students in Gater Country. Sitting around and complaining about what is done will never make for a successful event at Green River.

Instead, maybe the students could try getting out and helping to make our college activities successful.

Sincerely,
The Group

Negroes from enrolling? Who else? I suppose the gentlemen wouldn't call Wallace a racist, even if he shot them.

The letter goes on to say that Wallace's wife got 87 per cent of the vote in the Negro section of Selma, Alabama, and led by a 5 2 margin in Montgomery County, where there are also many Negroes. (Note — I didn't say Negro voters, because Negro voting is frowned upon in the South.)

These "unimpeachable figures" don't mean much when you look back to 1964 when President Johnson lied to us about not wanting American boys fighting in Vietnam. LBJ won that election by the widest margin in history. Does that make him the Prince of Peace?

It will take much more than statistics to convince me that George Wallace has done one single thing for the American Negro.

Sincerely,
Karl Moor

Dear Editor:

What does this newest quarterly mean to you? Does it fulfill your expectations of what a quarterly should be? Does this same quarterly honestly represent your school, its activities, and student body as a whole? Is there any aspect(s) that might be in need of improvement?

I feel there is a large lack in student body representativeness. But why is this? Is it the student body's fault that they do not want to have to pay for having their picture taken as well as for the quarterly itself. Shouldn't the students, for the price of the quarterly, be entitled to have their picture in the quarterly for free?

I am doing more than just making a complaint, I have started taking some action. For instance, in the last ASB meeting, I brought before the council a proposal to have a committee be formed to organize improvements in the quarterly — this was passed.

This committee I spoke of, will serve several purposes. First, it will make a survey inquiring into students ideas and suggestions. Second, with Mr. Waldrons permission, it will help the undersized staff gather the large quantities of material and data necessary for a complete and informative quarterly. And finally, it will give everyone a chance to participate in making the quarterly.

I hope that everyone will talk to either Gordon Ip or myself and either volunteer his services or make comments about how the quarterly can be improved. Comments either good or bad will be met with consideration and will be used for the best purposes possible.

AWS Club Elects Burrell

The Associated Women Students, a recently formed organization on Green River's campus this year, has named its officers who will serve for the remainder of the school year.

The officers are: Pres., Gail Burrell, 20 Sophomore, Kent-Meridian High School; Vice-Pres., Penny Kleven, 19, Sophomore, Kent-Meridian; Sec., Mary Jo Ferrucci, 19, Sophomore, Puyallup High School; Tres: Sue Kummer, 19, Sophomore, Kent-Meridian; Historian, Connie Akers, 18, Freshman, Kent-Meridian High School; Publicity, Karen Rooney, 19, Sophomore, Kent-Meridian High School; Rep. to Student Council, Judy Burrell, Freshman, Kent-Meridian High School; and Appointed Chairman, Chris Andreason, 19, Sophomore, Puyallup High School.

Future plans for AWS include a Mother-Daughter Tea May 5, a speaker which will appear on campus lecturing on grooming, and the ladies plan to plant a living Christmas tree, to be trimmed yearly at Christmas by the group.

Anyone interested in joining the Associated Women Students of GRCC is encouraged to watch the daily bulletin for the time and place of the next meeting.

Tom Reiner Wins Skateboard Race

Five seconds made the difference between victory and defeat for Tom Reiner Friday as he took top honors in a spur-of-the-moment skateboard race.

In the girls division Rene Hill took top honors as she raced unopposed. Her time of 2:10.8 was faster than that of Reiner who clocked in at 2:22.6 for his winning time.

Gary Murphy took second place with a 2:27.1 effort as he took the course, which consisted of two and one half lengths of the walkway between the Music Building and the Humanities-Social Science Building, in 2:27.1.

Jas Linford finished in third place but he was disqualified by the judges for missing a gate on the 2nd lap.

Ron Duris moved to third place following the disqualification with his 2:34.8 effort.

Proficiency Test Slated

The English Proficiency Test for students who wish to qualify for English 101 will be administered Tuesday, February 27, from 8:00 to 10:00 a.m. and from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Students must pay a $1.00 fee and register in the Registrar's office before February 22. Students must present their receipts at the time of testing.

A description of the test is on reserve in the library.

New Officers Fill Vacancies

The vacancies of the ASB and Sophomore class offices have been filled, according to ASB President Gary Gadwa. The students selected to fill the offices are Bob Olson, ASB vice-president; Jon Ferguson, sophomore class vice-president; Carol Bertus, ASB treasurer; Ellen Stendal, and Collette Stevenson, sophomore class representatives.

Bob Olson is a sophomore at Green River and was recently on the President's List for his outstanding grade point average for Fall Quarter. The 23 year old 3-year Navy veteran was graduated in 1963 from Shoreline High School.

Carol Bertus is a sophomore business management major who was graduated in 1966 from Milwaukie High, Oregon. She is on the staff of the "Current," the college newspaper, and works part-time in the library. The 19 year old freshman is secretary-treasurer of the Philosophy Club at Green River. She attended Portland State College before coming to GRCC.

Jon Ferguson, who attended Syracuse University in New York and Big Bend Community College before transferring to Green River, was graduated from Sumner High School in 1962. Jon was listed on the honor roll for fall quarter. Before coming to Green River, Jon also spent 4½ years with the United States Air Force.

Ellen Stendal sophomore, is majoring in Home Economics. She was graduated from Kent-Meridian High School in 1966 and is active on campus in Ski Club and Model United Nations.

Collette Stevenson is a 21 year old freshman who was graduated in 1965 from West Seattle High.

The new officers have been seated in student council.

Deseret Club Plans to Elect Officers Today

Officers will be elected at noon today for the GRCC Deseret Club, meeting in room HS-12.

Any student who cannot attend is urged to contact Ed Eaton, faculty adviser to the group. Those not attending may be candidates for committee assignments, said a spokesman for the club.

The club is planning its third annual Folk Festival to be held in the Performing Arts Center on Friday, March 29. Auditions will be held about three weeks prior to the Festival. A definite date will be decided upon today.

WSU Director Berry To Meet Students On GRCC Campus

Stan Berry, Director of Admissions at Washington State University, will be on campus Tuesday, February 27 to interview students who are interested in transferring to Washington State University.

During the interview, a tentative evaluation of student records will be made to determine the precise standing of those interested in transfer. Last year five students transferred to Washington State from Green River College. Berry reports that students transferring from Green River have characteristically done well at Washington State with a first semester drop in grade point average of approximately .3, a gap which narrows somewhat during the remaining time the student spends at WSU.

Those students interested in discussing possible transfer should report to the counseling center to schedule an appointment.

Gator Grapplers Ready For State Next Week

Coach Doug Carr's grapplers wrap up the regular season Tuesday at the University of Washington against the Husky frosh. The match will begin at 7:30 p.m. The following weekend the Gators head for Aberdeen and the state tournament, to be hosted by Grays Harbor.

Last night as the Current was going to press the final home match of the season was being staged in the college with GRCC hosting Grays Harbor. No results were available at press time.

Coach Carr hopes to take eight men to state. They include Walt Pedefferri at 123-pounds or 130; Dennis O'Leary at 130 if his injured leg is better by then; Bob Blessing at 145; Don Brown at 160; Ralph Goss at 167; Rex Febus at 177; Dan Vogler at 191; and Ben Bergsma, unlimited. He will not enter anyone at 115, 137, or 152.

Last year at state Don Edwards of Green River, now in the service, won the 177-pound title for the Gators only state championship.

Gators Enter Home Stretch After Upset Loss to Chokers

Green River's Gators head into the home stretch of the 1967-68 basketball season with four of the five remaining game on the road with the all important one — Highline — here next Saturday.

Grays Harbor Wednesday night upset the Gators, 98-90, with Marion Bozman conspicuously absent from the GRCC line-up. Bozman, out with the flu, is expected to be back for tomorrow night's contest at Longview against Lower Columbia. The Red Devils early this season came within three points of Green River, 83-80, in the Christmas tournament. However, in their next meeting, the Gators scored a 126-101 victory over the visiting LCC squad. Moses Teylor scored 38 points in the first LCC game and 40 in the second one.

Friday, Feb. 23, the Gators travel to Tacoma to take on the rival Titans who gave the Bob Aubert squad a run for its money during the first half of their last meeting.

Saturday, Feb. 24, is the big one. The Gators host league-leading Highline in the final home game of the regular season (both Green River and Highline will probably be in the state tournament to be held at Green River March 7-8-9 in post-season play.) Something has to give in that one. Green River this season has never lost at home. But, Green River has never, in the 2½ year history of the school, beat Highline in any sports competition. One of those records has got to fall Saturday.

The following week, the Gators will travel to Centralia on Wednesday, Feb. 28, and to Peninsula on Friday, March 1.

Wednesday at Grays Harbor, the Gators frequently tied but rarely led against the upset-minded Grays Harbor Chokers who had as much as a 12-point lead near the end of the game. The Chokers not only out-scored Green River, but out-rebounded them. Pacing the Aberdeen club was Gary Carr with 30 points. Carr is the younger brother of UW star Dave Carr and former UW football star Luther Carr. John Wilson had 22 for the hosts, Mike Armstrong had 18, Greg McGuire 16, Randy Cottrell 8, and John Davidson 4.

Moses Taylor was again the high point for Green River with 23 points. Greg Brovold netted 18, Tim Cummings 14, Roger Sloan 14, Duane Barnette 6, John Harrell 9, and Jack Boyett 6.

Intramural Race Tightens

The race for the intramural basketball crown tightened up Tuesday when fourth place Team 9 upset front running Team 4. Team 9, composed of Jim Akers, John Welch, Dick Duncalf, Bob Davis, Bill Trimm, Arlin Olsen, Bob Worley, Dennis Cogger, Richard Price, and Gary Christoperson, moved into a three-way tie for second place with the victory.

In other action this week, winless Team 3 picked up its initial victory with a conquest of Team 1. Team 1 dropped from second place to fifth.

Team 4, led by high scoring Joe (Scooter) McGivney, kept its one game lead by blasting the Faculty Team 33-17, and Team 6, 40-19.

McGivney, who is averaging 15 points a game, rattled the nylon for 18 beans in the victory over Team 6. Other members of Team 4 are: Ron Tosehi, Gary Bearson, Dave Grieve, Jim Bell, Fred Rasser, and Jack Bonato.

In league play last week, Team 8 beat Team 2, and Team 1 beat Team 9 on Thursday. Team 7 and 4 picked up wins on Tuesday.

Batmen Start Turnouts; Begin Season March 30

March 1 marks the first day of baseball turnout for Green River's yearling ball-club. Mr. Marv Nelson will be leading his troops through drills, preparing them for their initial contest on March 30 at Olympic College.

This is the first year that Green River has offered baseball, but Coach Nelson has high hopes for his team.

So far, some twenty Gatormen have signed up for baseball, and Nelson expects more to show up for practice. Of these 25-30 prospects, Coach Nelson sees good talent in the outfield and on the mound. He feels, however, that there may be inadequate depth in the catcher position.

GRCC will play in the North-West Division of the State Community College Conference. According to Nelson, community colleges produce some excellent ball players, and the competition is generally very good.

The Gators have 24 games scheduled this season. They will play Shoreline, Everett, Skagit Valley, and Grays Harbor Community Colleges in league action.

Cindermen to Begin Full Track Season

Coach Larry Turnbull has announced March 4 as the first official turn-out for the Green River Cindermen. Turnbull stated that he has about 12 tentative team members but welcomes anyone who wishes to turn out for the track team.

Green River will build a nucleus around Guy Wood, who runs the mile, and Dennis Jones, two-miler. Both are studying at Green River under track scholarships.

The Gators will attempt to develop and unify before March 23, when they meet Mt. Hood Community College in Oregon.

"I can't make any speculations about how the league will stack up," commented Turnbull, "but I expect Highline and Shoreline to be very strong."

Cressman Paces JV Scoring

Gary Cressman, former South Kitsap High School basketball star, is leading the Green River Community College Junior Varsity hoop squad in scoring.

Cressman has scored 189 points in 10 games for an 18.9 average. He has scored 77 field goals to take a commanding lead in that department with Orting's Terry Rudnick in second place with 55 in ten games. Jerry Waltson of Fife had 54 field goals and Paul Rushton, former Franklin Pierce starter, is fourth with 49.

Rushton is the leading foul shooter on the team with 38, just three ahead of Cressman and is tied for second in scoring average with Renton's Mike Willis, both have a 13.6 average. Willis, however, a regular member of the varsity, has played in only three junior varsity games. Rushton has played in all 10.

Rushton has a narrow lead over Walston and Rudnick for runner-up honors to Cressman in total points. Rushton has 136 points, Walston has 132 and Rudnick has 131.

Five Gators are averaging in the double figures. Cressman has 18.9, Rushton and Willis, 13.6; Walston, 13.2; and Rudnick, 13.1.

The JV has an 8-2 record for the season.
